

AS TO CLOTHING.

HERE is an epitaph in a Vermont churchyard: "I expected this but not so soon." Such is the epitaph on clothing worn out in the wash-tub. Underclothing may be fragile, yet it ought not to wear out in ten weeks. But this isn't wear; it is decay. You buy 5 cents worth of cheap soap and you lose the equivalent of 50 cents in the wash-tub. Ivory Soap will not harm the most delicate fabric. Is it wise not to use it? IVORY SOAP IS 99% PER CENT. PURE.

than can those in cities of Akron's population.

PAYTON RESTRAINED.

Charles Frohman has won one suit in his efforts to prevent the pirating of the title "L'Aiglon" to plays dealing with the life of the Duke of Reichstadt. Tuesday, in New York, he was granted an injunction against Corse Payton, the actor-manager, so well known in Akron, restraining him from using the title of the Rostand drama. Justice McAdams of the New York Supreme Court, in granting the injunction says that it is evident that Payton's object in appropriating the title of Frohman's production is to secure to himself the credit and benefit of a well known production, a feature which gives rise to equitable relief. In concluding, Justice Adams said: "The established facts show that Frohman will in all probability, establish his claim at the trial and he is entitled to the injunctive relief applied for to make the final decree effective."

A GREAT CHANGE.

Lent does not seem to have such an influence on the theatrical business as it did about ten years ago. It is wonderful what an effect the march of civilization—liberalism—intelligence or whatever you are pleased to call it, has had upon later day people. Views have undergone, in this brief period, a change that is marvelous. Look at it from any side you will. Ten years ago, the actor's contract, with his manager carried a clause which gave to the manager the right to pay only half salaries during the Lenten season, and also the right to pay only hotel and railroad fares, if he saw fit. Now that clause is entirely eliminated, except Holy week—and that is made an exception only through the conscientious scruples of the "Star;" and even they, now, only live up to their teachings, (except a few) by not playing on Good Friday. What has brought about this change? Is it the demand of the public for amusements at all times—or what? Even here in Akron, we find Father Moran's Dramatic club—right in the midst of the Lenten season, announcing the production of a drama. It might be argued that the Roman seems to have wakened up to the fact that barn-storming aggregations do not satisfy the demands of our public. Manager Albaugh, through his shrewd management, has lifted the old house out of the rut. The public has begun to learn that when he announces an attraction it is the original company—not the water tank branches of successful plays. Having won the confidence of the public, he is meeting with signal financial results. It is to be hoped that the good work will go on. A capable manager insures first class attractions. SOL SMITH RUSSELL'S SUCCESSOR.

Wednesday evening, March 20, Manager Albaugh offers "A Poor Relation" with Frank Keenan in the role made famous by Sol Smith Russell. Mr. Keenan achieved a deserved triumph here last season. Coming unheralded, and unknown, his success was peculiarly gratifying. There is no question as to the big audience that will await and welcome him.

RICHARD GOLDEN.

Richard Golden presents his famous comedy, "Old Jed Prouty" at the Grand Monday evening, March 18. Mr. Golden is, concededly, the greatest eccentric comedian on the American stage. His play is above and beyond, in literary ability, all others of this class. It must not be confounded with the Brass Band abortions which are so familiar to the public, but rather with the homely and pure class of comedies, introduced by Denman Thompson. Good people can find a sermon in Golden's play, as far reaching as the most eloquent sermon ever preached in a pulpit, and folks who do not consider it bad form to laugh and to cry in public places, will have a chance here to show that human nature is the same the world over.

BELLE OF NEW YORK.

A particularly swell "Belle" and a good company throughout made "The Belle of New York" at the opera house Friday night one of the best attractions of this season. The attendance was very large.

NOTES.

The talk about a big vaudeville theater here, to be run on the plan of the Empire Theater in Cleveland, is all "Tommy Rot." Akron is a mighty big town for its size, but that is a little too much.

There will be at least 400 ten-twenty-third cent repertoire companies on the road next season. Somebody is liable to get the worst of it.

Richard Golden in "Old Jed Prouty," is doing a land office business in Cleveland this week.

One of our local advance agents, Sam Whitelaw, will shortly join Sun's circus.

Hal Reid's latest play: "At the Old Cross Roads," will receive its premiere next season.

Melbourne Macdowell is starring in Fanny Davenport's old repertoire.

"Human Spiders," is the blood-curdling title of a recent New York production.

Rose Eytinge, the well known actress, has a school of acting in Manhattan now. She's old enough to know how.

The "White Rats" are on the war path for that five per cent. commission now. It was a matter of dollars and cents after all.

Geo. Chenell, manager of "A Run on The Bank," did not come to Akron with his troupe. He evidently was afraid to participate in the B. P. O. E. festivities which followed the show given by his company in the Elk hall Thursday night.

New York City has 55 first class theaters; Brooklyn has 18. This does not include the innumerable museums, concert halls, etc. You pay your money and you take your choice.

Like mad dollars, all counterfeiters, of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are worthless. The original quickly cures piles, sores and all skin diseases.

"HARKEN YE!"

To the Voice of Akron People.

If you will but listen to your friends and neighbors they will tell you how the pains and aches of a bad back, the annoyance of urinary troubles, the nervousness, the restlessness that come from kidney ills, can be relieved and cured. Read what one Akron citizen says:

Mr. Henry Willis of 408 West Thornton st., corner of the corner of South Main and Cross sts., says: "I suffered from an enervating backache which was accompanied by weariness and depression and an inclination to rise frequently during the night. I had more or less dull headaches and walking or climbing exhausted me. Promoting Doan's Kidney Pills from Lamparter & Co.'s drug store I found their use effective in removing the symptoms from which I suffered. They acted promptly and I was much pleased with the result of their use. They made me sleep better, for previously I was troubled with nervous restlessness. As a remedy for backache or indisposition from kidney derangement have no hesitancy in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

WHEN IDY HAD A BEAU.

The other night down at our house, when Idy had a beau,

Me an' Mandy heard a stompin at the parlor door,

An when the door was opened up I hollered, "Idy,

Winn,

This is a purty time of night to come a-trompin in!"

An Mandy ketched me by the arm an' whispered,

"Tense an' low,

"Fer heaven sake, quit hollerin, fer Idy's got a beau!"

My face turned red as a comet trailin through the skies at night.

An I hear Idy whisper, "Wait until I git a light."

An out she comes an' says: "Pa, that jist shamed me nearly dead."

It's cold as ice in there, an you tolks pile right into bed.

So's we kin have this room," she says, an we picked up to go.

Fer that's the first time in her life that Idy had a beau!

Well, talk about a flustered girl! The likes I never saw.

She called her father mother, and she called her mother paw!

"An help me straighten up this room, fer gracious sake!" she says.

An here I let my brogans drop, an then she scowled at me!

I says, "We're goin right to bed as fast as we kin go!"

Fer that's the first time in her life that Idy had a beau!

We got into the bed at last an heard him take a seat!

We listened to the pleasant laugh that Idy rippled sweet.

Says I, a kind of whisperin, "Well, that's a sweeter sound

Than we have been accustomed to with jist ourselves around."

Says Mandy, sort of sighlike: "Girls will be girls, you know."

That's jist the way I fetched you in back thirty years ago!"
